TO RECOVER GOODS THE CLAIMS
Suit of Harry A. Norton vs Elizabeth R. Norton on Trial in Superior Court—He Claims Automobile, Bay Mare and Other Articles Were Sold by Defendant Who Was Formerly His Wife—Damages of $10,000 Are Asked.

All of Wednesday here in the superior court was occupied with the trial of the suit of Harry A. Norton against his former wife, Elizabeth R. Norton, from whom he secured a divorce some time ago on the ground of desertion and whom he is now suing for $10,000 damages on the ground that she took possession of and disposed of a number of articles which he claims were his property.

Included in these are an automobile, extra shoes and tires, wind shield, drop pan, a bay mare, robes, blankets and harnesses, furniture and household articles of various kinds and a bond for $1,000. Attorney John H.
Barnes conducted the case for Mr.
Norton, and James J. Sullivan appeared for Mrs. Norton. The only witness for the plaintiff was the plaintiff himself and the only witness called on the defendant was her husband, who was Judge of Probate Nelson J. Ayling.

In the afternoon session of court both sides rested and at 2:30 Judge Barnes made his argument for the plaintiff, speaking until 3:55. He was followed by Attorney C. J. James for the defendant, who was in the course of his argument when court adjourned at 4:30 until next Tuesday morning.

NORWICH GIRLS' CLUB SELECTS QUARTERS
Will Occupy Two Rooms in Thayer Building on Dec. 1st.

Rooms for the newly organized Norwich Girls' club have been secured in the Thayer building on the corner of the street and the first of December. Some time later than that they will conduct a formal opening night.

The rooms secured in this convenient location are two large ones on the second floor, and a smaller one on the first floor, in very attractive form for the occupancy of the club. More than 100 new names have been secured since the club was organized. The club already has about 150 members and will start with particularly strong prospects.
There is to be no more to be done before they get into their new rooms, which will be on next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, when the new rooms will be opened to the public. The new rooms are in the Thayer building, state organizer, is to be present.

The following club committees have been appointed: Finance, Mrs. Louis T. Cassidy, Miss Carolyn Wasmuth, Miss Josephine Edwards and Miss May Williams; Publicity, Mrs. H. B. Leach, Miss Theresa McNamara, Miss Fran-

His Pack Out.

Physical Director O. H. Nickerson of the Y. M. C. A. has arranged for a hare and hound chase for the members of the senior club, which will be held this (Thanksgiving) morning at 9:30 o'clock. The start is to be made from the Y. M. C. A. building, where the seniors will lay the trail. The hounds will follow five minutes later, and the chase promises to be an exciting one.

MASQUERADE AT MILLERS.
Picturesque Scene at Evening Arranged by H. B. C. Club of Academy.

One of the prettiest masquerades of the season was that at Miller's accademy on Oak street on Wednesday evening given by the H. B. C. Club of the Norwich Free Academy with an attendance of about 50 couples. The programme of 16 numbers contained the new dances for which Miller's orchestra played and the scene was a picturesque one with the mase-quers, the dancing, the music and the decorations. The orchestra was led by an Uncle Sam dancing with Dutch girls, gypsy maidens, Spanish girls, Greek girls, sailors, a Scotch lassie and a Goddess of Liberty. Refreshments were served at the intermission.
The chaperones were Mrs. D. T.
Shea, Mrs. George P. Mather and Mrs. John M. Lee. Miss Eleanor Fitzgerald was general chairman of the committee in charge of the party. Miss Kelly, Miss Esther Madden, Miss Sadie Donohue and Miss Mae Whaley were the reception committee and Miss Eleanor Fitzgerald, Miss Agnes Leahy and Miss Georgette Comeau on the invitation committee.

THANKSGIVING SPIRIT SHOWN TOWARD PRISONER.
Police Chief Allows Jewett City Man to Depart For Home on Eve of Holiday.

A Jewett City man who imbibed too much of the amber fluid and was gathered in by the Norwich police on Wednesday afternoon at police headquarters after a night of carousing, was allowed to depart for home on the eve of the Thanksgiving holiday because of the recognition of the Thanksgiving season to thank for the fact that he is spending the holiday in the bosom of his family instead of appearing before the Norwich city court.

After the man had slept off most of the effects of a cold at police headquarters Chief Linton allowed him to depart for home under the stipulation that he should take his son, Charles Jewett City and keep going until he got there. The chief had Policeman Charles Smith see that the man took the car.

The favored one said that once before when he got intoxicated in this city he got arrested and stayed in jail for several days and he was grateful that he was allowed to depart for his home this time.

HOLIDAY PROGRAMME AT COUNTY HOME.
Upper Grade Children Entertained the Younger Ones.

At the county home on Wednesday afternoon a programme was given at 3 o'clock by the upper grade school for the entertainment of the younger children and was prettily carried out under the direction of the principal, Miss M. J. Leach. At the intermission, Miss Edith Holden played for the children to sing, and after the programme was over the little children in Mrs. Clarence Yeoman's room sang three pieces.

All the 75 children in the home, 45 boys and 30 girls, were assembled together to hear the following numbers

Struck by Trolley.
Polish Man Hit at Montville—Taken to Hospital—Not Badly Hurt—Refuses to Give Name.
A Polish man, said to have been intoxicated, was struck by a Norwich autotruck on Montville road, about after 8 o'clock Wednesday night and rendered unconscious. Dr. John W.
Cotton was called to attend the man and he took him to the Backus hospital, where an examination showed that he had only slight injuries. He passed the evening in the hospital. The injured man refused to give his name or tell how the accident happened.
